Eucharistic Miracle of Cascia Italy, 1330

A priest was asked to bring Communion to a sick peasant. The priest took a consecrated Host and went to the peasant. When he arrived at the house of the sick man, after hearing his confession, he opened the book to take out the Host which he had placed there. To his great surprise he found that the Host was stained with living blood, so much as to mark both pages between which the Blessed Sacrament had been placed.

The Word This Week

Readings:

1st Reading: Exodus 24,3-8 [Blood of the Covenant]

See the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you.

Psalm: Ps 116 [The Cup of Salvation]

J.R. I will take the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. (BB pg.102)

2nd Reading: Hebrews 9.11-15 [Jesus the High Priest]

The blood of Christ will purify our consciences.

Gospel: Mark 14.12-16,22-26 [The First Eucharist]

Take; this is my Body. Drink; this is my Blood.

This is my Body. This is my Blood

Christ gave His Body and Blood on the Cross to give birth to our new life. He instructed us to take and eat of this same Body and Blood which He made the sacrifice of the New Covenant. The Son of God became man that He might dwell among us and apply His grace to our soul. Today we honor the gift of His Body and Blood through which He feeds us superabundantly, strengthens us, comforts us, and nourishes our growth. Through the gift of His most holy Body and Blood, we receive life. Moreover, He continues to provide this gift that we might grow in health and maturity to the fullness of Christian life in the kingdom of God.
