Readings:

1st Reading: Exodus 16: 2-4, 12-15, 31a

[Manna from Heaven]

I am going to rain bread from heaven for you.

Psalm: Psalm 78 BB pg 113 [Heavenly Bread]

℟. "The Lord gave them bread from Heaven."

2nd Reading: Ephesians 4: 17, 20-24 [A New Self]

Clothe yourselves with the New Man, created according to the likeness of God.

Gospel: John 6: 24-35 [Christ, True Bread from Heaven]

Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

"He who comes to me never be hungry. He who believes in me will never thirst."

We continue reading from John 6: this is the aftermath of the miracle, and we see the beginnings of a misunderstanding that will develop over the next four weeks. People have seen the miracle, but not the message: they have seen the sign, but not what it points towards. The bread that was given is a sign of the Bread of Life, which is the teaching, the words and the very person of Jesus, as the revelation of the Father. His mission is to draw people back to his Father, to found a New Covenant or relationship. As the weeks go by, we will see that the people's hunger is simply for spectacle and miracle, not for the much harder teaching of living nourished by God's word and the presence of his only Son. For us, the People of the New Covenant, these passages must make us think of how we receive the Lord in the Eucharist. Are we nourished by his presence, so that all the hunger and thirst of our lives is answered by the One who is the Bread of Life?
