Readings:

1st Reading: Sirach 3: 17-20, 28-29

Humble yourself, so you will find favour in the sight of the Lord.

Psalm: Psalm 68

♫ "God in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor." BB pg.119

2nd Reading: Hebrews 12: 18-19, 22-24a

You have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God.

Gospel: Luke 14: 1, 7-14

Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.

Humble behaviour is the mark of the Christian, as it always was the mark of someone in favour with the Lord. In the Gospel, we see Jesus watching the Pharisees: it's almost amusing to picture them shuffling for the best places, the polite "After you!" to put themselves in a better position. How would they have reacted to his teaching? They may well have remembered the passage we read from the Old Testament, and realised that Jesus was teaching the teachers something they should be well aware of.
