Readings:

1st Reading: Isaiah 66: 18-21

They shall bring all your kindred from all the nations.

Psalm: Psalm 117

JR. "Go out to all the world and tell the Good News."

BB pg.118

2nd Reading: Hebrews 12: 5-7, 11-13

The Lord disciplines those whom he loves.

Gospel: Luke 13: 22-30

People will come from east and west, and will eat in the kingdom of God.

Men from east and west will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

It's probably a nightmare we all share to some degree or other - being locked out of the house, the sales, the big match, or missing the train, the boat or plane. Contemplating watching the crowds that have got inside, while we can do nothing, can be unnerving. Complacency can leave us in this situation: today the Lord warns all who listen to him to be careful, taking nothing for granted, but making sure that we are (spiritually at least) like the people waiting with their sleeping bags and thermos flasks by the front door of the ticket office.
